Comparative Political Systems MDSC-6B	4	3	1	-	Passed Class XII	Nil

Learning Objectives

The aim of this course is to train students in the application of comparative methods to the study of different political systems with respect to institutions and their functioning in these countries from a comparative perspective. Students will be familiarised with the defining features like political tradition, state formation, constitution and division of power, structure of government, electoral system, political parties, party system, and the contemporary social and economic challenges in these societies.

Learning outcomes

This paper will provide students with a comprehensive understanding of a range of political systems from different continents in a historical context. The students will engage in studying different countries in detail with reference to their political tradition and state formation, constitution and division of power, political parties and elections, political economy and contemporary challenges. The critical analysis of different political systems will delineate the institutional structures, processes and their functioning in these systems. The course content would also help students develop analytical skills to understand not just the similarities and differences but the uniqueness of some cases as well that highlight how the matrix of diverse determinants and variables result in different discourses in different countries.
